WHAT IS RESPONSIBLE CAMPING?

Responsible camping is camping responsibly!
It's all about caring for our spectacular environment as much as we do.

Responsible Campers leave no trace and help keep our communities and natural environment free from pollution and waste.

HOW TO BE A RESPONSIBLE CAMPER

Always use the toilets provided (or your own).

Use a designated wastewater dump station for your sewage and sink water.

Use your own facilities for showering and toileting to keep our environment clean and pollution free.

Dispose of your rubbish and recycling in the bins provided or at a transfer station.

Always park in the areas specifically designated for your type of vehicle.

Wash dishes and utensils at areas provided (or your own on-board area).

The Queenstown Lakes District welcomes Responsible Camping with certified self-contained vehicles.

Take only photos, leave only footprints.

Find a full directory of all camping spots online at CamperMate.co.nz or download the free app.

IS MY VEHICLE CERTIFIED SELF-CONTAINED?

A self-contained vehicle must meet the Caravan Self Containment Certification standard. You'll need to be able to live in it for three days without getting more water or dumping waste. It must have:

a toilet | fresh water storage | waste water storage | and a rubbish bin with a lid.

A self-containment certificate warrant card must be displayed at all times.

SERVICE HUBS

Queenstown Lakes District has designated summer service hubs. Check out the CamperMate free app. For a full directory of all camping spots.

'SERVICE HUB': 2 hour max stay, pull in and be responsible.

Donations accepted towards community sustainability projects.
