1	Lisa	Brown	[REDACTED]	Agree	No	-
2	Chris	Cochrane	[REDACTED]	Disagree	No	Should show uniqueness and close like the rest of NZ.
3	Leea	Hirst	[REDACTED]	Neutral	No	Like the way it is; should allow Wanaka to trade also.
4	Andrew	Edgar	[REDACTED]	Agree	No	Need to meet international visitor expectations by trading.
5	Eddie	Gapper	[REDACTED]	Agree	No	Policy should apply universally unless there is good reason why not and no such reason exists.
6	Dominique	Wylie	[REDACTED]	Agree	No	Should permit trading to provide choice during a big weekend for tourism. Not everyone is religious.
7	Kids' Loop		[REDACTED]	Disagree (?)	Yes	Easter trading is busy with tourist customers who like that they are open.
8	Tanja	Schwindt	[REDACTED]	Agree	No	No difference between Queenstown and Wanaka; shop-owners have high lease costs and the policy will provide the option to trade.
9	Anthony	King	[REDACTED]	Agree	No	A level playing field and positive tourist experience is important across the district.
10	Georgie	Bignell	[REDACTED]	Disagree	No	Workers need a break and should be guaranteed this day off.
11	Andy	Crozier	[REDACTED]	Agree	No	Aligning the policy makes sense as Wanaka is an international tourist destination and current restrictions are out of touch with commercial reality.
12	Shane	Wild	[REDACTED]	Agree	No	Totally support businesses being able to trade through Easter.
13	Krystyna	Glavinovic	[REDACTED]	Disagree	No	Would be simpler and fairer to allow shops in both Wanaka and QT to remain open for Easter.

Sub #	First name	Surname	Email	Agree/Disagree	Appear	Summary of comment
14	Holly	Munday		Agree	No	Good especially for significant events in Wanaka over Easter. Current rule is archaic and closed businesses are a surprise to visitors.
15	Mt Outdoors retail shop			Agree	Yes	Should be able to open over Easter as visitors expect this. Staff want to work the stat day but would not deny a staff request for the day off.
16	Guy	Hughes		Agree	No	Shops should be allowed to trade as they like; law is out of date.
17	Lynette	Winsloe		Agree	No	Shops should be allowed to open on Easter Sunday if they wish to; is expected by tourists and Sunday shopping is the norm.
18	Sarah	Fredric		Agree	No	Should be allowed to trade as is a very busy time of year.
19	Gerard	Philip		Agree	No	Allowing Sunday trading in Wanaka will level the playing field.
20	Dan	Harman		Agree	Yes	Businesses should have freedom to open if they wish provided no pressure is placed on employees.
21	Natalie	Houghton		Agree	No	Allow shop opening – closing for religious reasons is for a minority only.
22	Phillip	Bunn		Agree	No	Should allow businesses to open if they wish; is a tourist area and allows to service visitors.
23	Emma	Graves		Disagree	No	Allows one day that shop employees can be with families; if allow opening will not be the owners who are required to work.
24	Julie	Wallen		Disagree	No	Allow retail staff this day off.
25	Roger	Tompkins		Agree	No	Support, provided staff who are working are properly compensated.

Sub #	First name	Surname	Email	Agree/Disagree	Appear	Summary of comment
26	April	Mackenzie		Agree	No	All businesses in the QLDC area should be allowed to trade on Easter Sunday.
27	Monika	Fry		Agree	No	Wanaka is a tourist town and shutting for a religious festival is outmoded.
28	Simon	Battrick		Agree	No	All visitors expect shops to be open longer hours and on public holidays in Queenstown Lakes District especially.
29	Leanne	Saunders		Disagree	No	Good to have a day without retailing; provides time to spend with family.
30	Michael	Tierney		Agree	No	All shops across the district should be free to trade. Tourism is a dominant activity and Wanaka should not be disadvantaged.
31	Jacou	Vettard		Agree	No	Shops should be open and staff paid double.
32	George	Horsburgh		Agree	No	All areas should be treated equally. Anachronistic to acknowledge one religious belief but not others.
33	Mark	Wilson		Agree	No	Addresses a farcical situation in a largely secular country. Current laws are out of step with modern society which seeks tolerance of all beliefs. Current laws are confusing for tourists and businesses lose potential revenue.

I believe that Wanaka should be able to trade in line with Queenstown on Easter Sunday because not everyone is religious and also because local businesses should have a choice. Easter weekend is big for tourism across the entire country and local businesses could be missing out if they do not have the choice to open their doors on Easter Sunday.

Wanaka is a major destination for International tourists and restrictions on Easter Sunday trading are out of touch with the commercial reality of running businesses in the region. Therefore aligning the policy makes perfect sense and allows businesses to open if they wish to on Easter Sunday.

This is long over due for Wanaka, particularly with significant events such as war birds occurring at easter. Easter draws significant number of overseas and domestic visitors to the region who are always surprised by the closed doors on Sunday. Huge benefit to the economy as well for an archaic rule.

We in Wanaka should be able to open shops over Easter. Massive tourist trade that expects shops to be open/is surprised that the law denies us the chance to trade.

All our staff have always wanted to work over the Easter period though they have never been pressed, and gain extra pay and days in lieu.

We would never have asked staff to work If they wanted a family/religious day off.

It has seemed ludicrous that the law has been against us opening. A commercial loss.

No ones gain.

SHops should be allowed to open if they wish to, on Easter Sunday. WIth so many tourists and holiday makers in town (Wanaka), people are looking for shops to be open. There should be freedom of choice in this matter.

WIth sunday shopping being the norm, rather than the exception, in most towns, Wanaka shops should be allowed to be open.

It allows one day where people can spend the day with family even when they work in retail. If the shops are open someone has to work and it sure as hell won't be the business owners or the managers. Close the shops and restaurants and bars!

What difference does one day make, let retail staff have the day off like every other area in the country. When you work for a national company and you and your staff are the only people in the whole company working it is depressing. Make it family time again!

Equity demands that all regions within the QLDC should be treated equally. Moreover, in an increasingly diverse and cosmopolitan society, there is something anachronistic about restricting commerce on religious grounds for one community group but not for citizens of a different religious persuasion.

This proposal starts to remove the farcical situation where by a modern secular country is basing its laws off religious scripture which is thousands of years old.

Not only are the current laws outdated and nonsensical they also conflict with modern New Zealand in the sense that we are trying to foster an atmosphere which is tolerant of all people and their beliefs not just one particular belief system.

The current laws are confusing for tourists, create a situation where by revenue earning potential is lost for business's and generally make us look like a pack of Amish hillbilly's.

This is a fantastic move from the council and should be moved on with haste.

Well done.
